

Annual Report 2014-15

*Dedicated to our donors and nurses who are changing the world...
One Nurse At A Time*

As another year draws to a close, I want to thank all our donors and the amazing nurses they supported in their efforts to help those most desperately in need at home and internationally. Thank you for helping us reach and encourage hundreds of nurses across America and around the world. I am humbled by the needs we still see and yet, more and more nurses are stepping up throughout their careers to give of themselves to people they have never met, to open their hearts and lives to others, to use their precious time away from family and comforts of home to bring hope to others.

One Nurse At A Time is proud to have been recognized by PayPal and Microsoft - being awarded one of 5 Grand Prizes out of 15,000 entries of worthy non-profits. We have been invited to speak and share our message about the value of volunteering across the country. We have plans for further outreach to students and new nurses who begin to shape their careers. Even our board of directors went on a mission and mentored first mission folks to light the fire inside. Our Jo's Nurses missions focus on helping those first mission nurses be successful and our scholarship program financially supports nurses who otherwise might not be able to fund their volunteerism.

There is never enough time to accomplish everything we'd like to do, but we believe our work is a marathon and not a sprint. We look forward to many more wonderful years of championing the life saving magic of nurse volunteerism.

Thank you for joining with us.
Sue

Looking Forward -

Jo's Nurses will send two groups of first mission nurses with a mentor - one to Guatemala with Refuge International and one with Midwives for Haiti. Our goal is to provide settings and support that encourage the nurse to fall in love with volunteering.

Dream one. Do one. Lead one.

One Nurse At A Time: Beyond Borders - available on Amazon.com in print and electronic version. Our first in a series of books about the inspirational work of nurses across the world, bringing healthcare to those men, women and children in desperate need of medical services.

The second in the series, One Nurse At A Time: On A Mission will debut in early 2017.

Board member nurses Sue Averill, Emily Scott and Amanda Judd continue to volunteer in local and international missions.

Save the Date: May 6, 2017 We'll be celebrating our TENTH birthday at Lake Forest Park Civic Club, 17301 Beach Dr NE, Lake Forest Park, WA 98155 An evening of celebration for a decade of supporting nurses and changing the world. See you then!
